RIGHT TO RENT CHECK

TIME LIMITED RIGHT TO REMAIN IN THE UK:

Time limited right

At the time of writing, if one of the following documents are provided showing the holder or named person is allowed to stay in the UK for a time limited period the government guidance states that the landlord can accept such documents but the landlord must carry out follow up checks after one year, beginning with the date on which the checks were last made, or before the expiry of the person's permission to be in the UK (whichever is longer) or on the expiry of a person's permission to stay in the UK as shown on their biometric residence permit:

- A valid passport or other travel document
- A current biometric immigration document issued by the Home Office
- A current residence card issued to a non-EEA national who is either a family member of an EEA or Swiss national or has a derivative right of residence
- A current immigration status document issued by the Home Office
- Where the person has an ongoing application with the Home Office, or their documents are with the Home Office, or they claim to have a permission of right to rent, an email from the Landlords Checking Service providing a 'yes' response to a right to rent request.
